Ice Age Scavenger Hunt (K-2)
University of Iowa Museum of Natural History
Find the acorns!

Who am I? ________________________

What can you spot in my case that belongs to me? ________________________

Who am I? ________________________

What did I use to throw my spear farther and harder? ________________________

Who am I? ________________________

What did I eat? ________________________

Who am I? ________________________

What is my species' current population? ________________________

Who am I? ________________________

Where do I live? ________________________

Who am I? ________________________

Did I ever live in Iowa? ________________________
Who am I?
__________________________
Who am I?
__________________________

Up to how much can I weigh?
__________________________
What color are my teeth?
__________________________

Who am I?
__________________________
Who am I?
__________________________

Do I have antlers?
__________________________
Am I a carnivore or herbivore?
__________________________

Who am I?
__________________________
Who am I?
__________________________

What is my scientific name?
__________________________
What Ice Age animal am I similar to?
__________________________

Be sure to check out the “Iowa’s Ice Age Giants” exhibit in the Old Capitol Museum! - April 18—August 5, 2013