NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL

Debates

Debates continued Monday. [Details not transcribed.]

Big Damage by Floods

Entire State Seems to be Affected by High Waters.

Des Moines has Great Loss

Thousands of people are homeless, many of whom are in need of immediate assistance.

Ottumwa Under Water

Flood waters have completely surrounded the city, and many homes have taken in water.

Situation at Topeka

The storm has caused significant damage to property, with many homes and businesses affected.

Tornado Brings Ruin and Death

Storm strikes town of Galesburg, Ill., and leaves 10 dead in its path.

Law to Benefit Farmers

Proposals to benefit farmers are to be advertised in the near future.

England's Tariff Policy

The recent act passed by the English government will have a significant impact on trade policies.

Democracy and Peonage

In Kansas, democratic sentiment is strong, and there is a desire to prevent the introduction of peonage.

Democrats Elect Fourteen Judges

The democratic convention has elected fourteen judges, a testament to the strength of the party.

Missouri and Nebraska

The Missouri and Nebraska situations continue to be considered most serious, with floods and storms creating significant challenges.